For more than 19 years UST has been successfully delivering software, services and solutions to a diverse set of industry verticals.

Certain things you can are only learn from experience and UST has an abundance of professional experience which it has earned from executing a variety of of projects in both government and private sector industries. We have helped our customers implement a variety of Information Technology initiatives from software development to ERP implementation to providing professional support for their critical applications. In the process, our customers have rewarded us by giving us repeat business and providing strong testimonials for our work.

We welcome our new prospects to look at our proven track record, talk to our existing customers and feel confident about our abilities to deliver your project successfully - on time on budget.