UST offers system integration expertise from project concept to completion including total integration of hardware and software across the enterprise that will maximize your ROI (return on investment). UST can be your one stop shop for business solutions including feasibility studies, analysis, design, installation, production, knowledge transfer and maintenance.